

MICHIGAN SUPREME COURT

Office of Public Information

contact: Marcia McBrien | (313) 972-3219 or (517) 373-0129

MICHIGAN HALL OF JUSTICE on-line information kit

On Tuesday, October 8, the Hall of Justice will formally open with a dedication ceremony. The Michigan Supreme Court will hold its first oral argument of the 2002-2003 term starting at 9:30 a.m. in the Supreme Court Chambers in the Capitol. The Court will then adjourn for a procession from the Capitol across the Capitol Mall to the Hall of Justice. The dedication will begin at noon, and will be followed by a reception. Both are open to the public.

The Michigan Hall of Justice will house the Michigan Supreme Court, Michigan Court of Appeals (4th District), State Court Administrative Office, and related judicial branch agencies. The Hall of Justice includes a 3,400-square-foot Learning Center, an interactive gallery with hands-on exhibits about Michigan's justice system. On Saturday, October 12, the State Bar of Michigan and Michigan Supreme Court Historical Society will co-sponsor a fundraiser for the Learning Center (see link below).

Press Releases

- Michigan Hall of Justice To Be Dedicated October 8 (October 4, 2002)
- Michigan Supreme Court To Hold Last Oral Arguments In Law Building Tomorrow (May 7, 2002)

Media Coverage

- "Courts applaud Hall of Justice," Lansing State Journal (September 29, 2002)
- "Demystifying the Judiciary: New Learning Center will spotlight how the justice system works," Michigan Bar Journal (August 2002)
- "Michigan's Hall of Justice: A Dream Deferred Comes True," Michigan Bar Journal (August 2002)

Images

- Hall of Justice, front view (artist's rendering)
- Hall of Justice, back view (artist's rendering)
- Learning Center diagram

Other Information and Links

- "Celebrating Foundations of Justice" fundraiser for the Hall of Justice Learning Center
- Performers and special guests at the Hall of Justice dedication ceremony